HAPPY EASTER TO OUR PARISH COMMUNITY

We wish all the members of our parish family the blessings of Easter—renewed good health—peace of mind & heart—and the joy that comes from a renewed faith in the Lord, Jesus.

RECTORY OFFICE CLOSINGS

The Rectory Office of Our Lady of Mount Carmel and St. Margaret Mary will be closed on Easter Monday, April 5th, 2010.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Friends:

The feast of Easter is the centerpiece of our faith. Christ's resurrection from the dead is our triumph over life's many problems. Every day we experience life in both its joys and sorrows, and perhaps the sorrows seem much greater. There is certainly no getting away from the fact that faith is challenged by the existence of evil, and we often encounter people who have lost their faith or cannot believe because of that. The solution is to consider not merely why evil exists, but rather the fact that good ultimately triumphs over evil. We may not experience that triumph in every case, or in this life, but we also know that we can only be fulfilled in our humanity when we make the act of faith that God has created us to live according to His will, and that we cannot be content unless we live in that way. In other words, despite life's pains, there is an abiding and more profound peace that comes from affirming God's image on our soul and His divine Providence in the long run. That long run must include the eternal perspective, which totally changes our evaluation of life's vicissitudes. May you and your loved one experience the peace and joy that only Easter can bring.

God Love You, Msgr. Ogle

DE EL PASTOR

Queridos hermanos,

La fiesta de la Pascua es el corazón de nuestra fe. La resurrección de Cristo de entre los muertos es nuestro triunfo sobre muchos problemas de la vida. Todos los días experimentamos la vida, tanto en sus alegrías y penas, y tal vez las penas parecen ser mucho mayor. Ciertamente no hay escapar del hecho de que la fe es cuestionada por la existencia del mal, y con frecuencia encontramos personas que han perdido su fe o no se puede creer, porque de eso. La solución es considerar no sólo por qué existe el mal, sino más bien el hecho de que el bien triunfa sobre el mal en última instancia. No se puede experimentar que el triunfo en todos los casos, o en esta vida, pero también sabemos que sólo puede cumplirse en nuestra humanidad, cuando hacen el acto de fe que Dios nos ha creado para vivir de acuerdo a su voluntad, y que no puede ser contenido si no vivimos de esa manera. En otras palabras, a pesar de los dolores de la vida, hay una paz duradera y más profunda que viene de afirmar la imagen de Dios en nuestra alma y de su divina providencia en el largo plazo. Que a largo plazo debe incluir la perspectiva eterna, que cambia totalmente nuestra evaluación de las vicisitudes de la vida. Que usted y sus queridos experimenten la paz y la alegría de Pascua que la Resurrección de Cristo sólo puede traer. Dios les cuida—Monsenor Ogle
